

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

My understanding was that any media company using the public airwaves free of charge, is required by law to serve the public interest. Isn't that one of the reasons we're not seeing Fahrenheit 911 on television this season?

This is a blatant slap in the face to the FCC rules and I hope you will bring them to justice.

Thank you.
